

A sacred place to be, and to become people of hope, compassion, justice, and service.

Keepers of the Sacred Fire

Carol Kortsch

November 2, 2018 to November 4, 2018

Do you long to celebrate within a human community that honors the silence of rock, the ripples of a tarn, and all other creatures? Are you ready to stretch out of the confines of your old story and welcome the new story that has been whispering in your dreams? Calling together a woman's circle for all ages - rediscovering and fanning the sacred fire within that has been forgotten, neglected, and though close to cultural extinction, has always been there!

Carol Kortsch has been offering nature-based Courage & Renewal retreats in Pennsylvania for the past decade. As a life adventurer and Earth listener, she has recently moved to Colorado where she continues to revel in mountain air and re-wild her soul.

Cost $435 includes double occupancy room, board and tuition
