

A sacred place to be, and to become people of hope, compassion, justice, and service.

Thin Places A Circle of Trust® for Finding The Courage to Live in a Divided World

Dr. Sally Z. Hare, Sue Small and Jean Richardson

March 19, 2018 to March 21, 2018

Come experience the very special Thin Place that is the Kirkridge Retreat and Study Center AND the Thin Place created in a Circle of Trust. This retreat is for persons who want to live divided no more, whether you are in education, health care, psychology, law, philanthropy, the arts, religious/spiritual life, nonprofit and community organizations, or retired. In this retreat the skilled facilitator will help create a quiet, focused, respectful space, in which the noise within us and around us can subside, and we can meet stillness. In large group, small group, and solitary settings, we will explore the intersection of our personal and professional lives, making use of stories from our own journeys, as well as insights from poets, storytellers, various wisdom

Led by Sally Z. Hare a teacher and a learner and a student of community. She earned her doctorate at the University of South Carolina and has completed post-doctoral work in settings as diverse as the Harvard University Leadership Institute, the Center for Contemplative Mind in Society, and the Institute of Noetic Science's Healing Arts of Bali. She is president of still learning, inc, and Singleton Distinguished Professor Emerita at Coastal Carolina University. She has worked for two decades with the national Center for Courage & Renewal and facilitates the Courage to Teach and the Courage to Lead programs as well as Circles of Trust retreats across the United States and in Canada and Australia. She is the story gatherer for the new book, Thin Places: Seeking the Courage to Live in a Divided World.

Space is limited to 20 participants.

COST: $525 includes EVERYTHING: all retreat fees, materials, single room, wonderful meals.